

Player Media Guidelines

No player will be permitted to wear at The Irish Open any logo or branding of: (a) any lotteries, betting or gaming operator which is not permitted to legally advertise according to local laws ; or (b) any other logo, picture or message which, in our opinion is indecent, offensive, controversial or provocative (including politically), discriminatory (whether on grounds of race, ethnicity, sexuality, gender, disability or otherwise) or promotes violence, intolerance or hatred in any form.

Excluding players seated at tables which are being filmed or recorded, players will be allowed to wear approved branding as follows:

- One breast pocket logo no larger than 70 square cm; and
- One upper shirt sleeve logo no larger than 70 square cm.

All players who choose to wear the branded logo of an approved operator during The Irish Open must abide by any restrictions or requirements as set out below

We reserve the right to photograph, televise, stream and record any part of The Irish Open at any time including players participation in it and to broadcast, distribute and make the same available throughout the world in any and all media without limit in time. Pursuant to this requirement to exhibit any part of The Irish Open, players agree to sit at a poker table which has been created for the purpose of televising or streaming The Irish Open.

No more than 2 players at each TV Table of a Tournament can wear the logo(s) of any single company. If more than 2 players from any single company are at the TV Table then the players themselves must decide which 2 players will continue to wear the branded clothing at the TV Table in question. If no decision is made, we will "high card" the affected players to make a decision. Branding cannot be introduced mid event. Any decision made by us will be final. Any player starting the TV Table wearing no logos must remain as such throughout their time at the TV Table.

We will have absolute discretion to approve the clothing and apparel worn by the players at the TV Table during The Irish Open. We will also have the right to remove any logo(s), image(s) or word(s) on players' clothing and apparel.

Any permitted logos/branding on shirts and apparel at the TV Table must comply with the restrictions described above and abide by the following additional restrictions:

- one breast pocket logo no larger than 7cm x 4cm;
- one upper shirt sleeve logo no larger than 7cm x 4cm; and
- baseball caps and card protectors with logos will be allowed only if the logos on such apparel and/or items are not visible.

No forms of company names and/or brand logo(s) other than as approved in accordance with this Agreement will be permitted on the TV Tables and during any form of filming including, but not limited to, sports and fashion brands. Any player wearing clothing or in possession of items (e.g. card protectors) in violation of this rule will not be able to participate at a TV Table until said article of clothing and/or item is replaced and/or removed. We reserve the right to remove (in our absolute discretion) or alter or disguise player sponsor logos if said logos do not comply with the terms set out in this document.

Players acknowledge and agree that if you are chosen to play at a TV Table during any Tournament, you may be required to surrender any and all electronic devices including but not limited to tablets and headphones to an appointed Tournament representative prior to taking your seat before play begins.

Players acknowledge and agree that players might be required to show their hole cards to the hole card cameras on the TV Table on each hand they are dealt. We shall have the right to halt play, within reason, on the TV Table until all hole cards are displayed by all players in play. There will be a minimum delay during live broadcasts of 30 minutes where hole cards are being shown.

Amendments: We reserve the right to change the terms of this Agreement at any time; therefore, you should review the most updated version each time prior to your participation in any Tournament.
